PURPOSE: To specify the location and purpose of treatment guides.

POLICY: Reference materials for specific age-related diagnostic categories are maintained on the intranet. These guides include, but are not limited to, written guidelines for completing evaluation forms, directives for performing various tests/examinations, and descriptions of assessment and treatment techniques for a specific diagnosis or disability. In addition to orienting new staff and students, this information is used by staff for quick reference. Information is located on both the Rancho Physical Therapy Sharepoint and in the Documents(S) drive in the RTD folder.
