		Supersedes: June 6, 2006	Effective Date: February 26, 2010
Committees Consulted: Academic Freedom Ad Hoc College Administration	Reviewed & Approved by: College Planning Board of Trustees	Approved by: (Signature on File) Provost, College of Nursing & Allied Health

PURPOSE:

To ensure College and individual faculty members' academic freedom is respected and protected.

POLICY:

Faculty have the:

- Freedom to develop curriculum/courses, teach, communicate, research, and publish within the constraints of Department of Health Services, LAC+USC Healthcare Network, College of Nursing and Allied Health, and other regulatory agency policies, procedures and guidelines
- Obligation to teach content and use teaching methodologies that are relevant and consistent with the curriculum program framework and course/program objectives
- Freedom to express their opinions in matters relevant to course content in an objective manner and shall not use their position to indoctrinate students with their personal, political, and/or religious views.

Faculty monitoring and observation, such as peer review, is done openly with the full knowledge of the faculty member being reviewed.

The College adheres to content frameworks provided by accreditation and regulatory agencies/standards

Divisional deans, in collaboration with faculty, determine course/program content in accordance with established frameworks

Faculty:

- Present course/class material clearly, objectively and free from bias
- Use teaching methodologies that are consistent with the curriculum framework and course/program objectives
- Identify personal viewpoints as separate from those of the College
- Foster an educational environment, which stimulates the spirit of inquiry.
